Foreword

Hi Friend,

My name is Betsy and I want you to know that I am really excited about this new job of mine. You see, I have a job that no one has ever had before, for it is my pleasure to acquaint you with "Eli-Mon".

"What is Eli-Mon?" did you say? Why this is the very first edition of the very first yearbook in the history of Elizabeth High School! Even in the name of our book we have expressed our feeling of pride in our school and our town, because, you see, Eli-Mon stands for "Elizabeth-on-the-Monongahela".

As most of you know, the Monongahela River has played a large part in the development of Elizabeth; first, in the historic boat building activities; and now in the erection of our fine new bridge.

Then, I want you to see how our school has also grown and expanded with the town and surrounding community.

Now, prepare to travel with me through the pages of Eli-Mon while I show you some intimate glimpses of Elizabeth High School 1952. You will meet both faculty and students, and you will see the part they have played in the growth of their school.

You can help me in my guided tour by turning the pages one at a time as we come to them. Shall we go!

Betsy's Senior Pals

Senior Class Officers

SPONSOR-Miss Elsie E. Bodnar, VICE PRESIDENT-Marilyn Smith, PRESIDENT-Ramo Fontanesi, TREASURER-Roseann Kettering, SECRETARY-Arlene Sherwood.

May I present the Class of 1952, the seniors.

In their first three years the usual events happened. During their freshman year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Bernard McNish, they had a "Get Acquainted Party", bake sale, and dance, called the "Cotton Caper"; the sophomore year, under the sponsorship of Miss Evelyn Harhai, featured a bake sale, skating party, swimming party and Promenade. In their junior year came their dance, "The Rodeo Roundup," and the never-to-be-forgotten prom, "Spring Garden." Roseann Kettering was chosen queen with Margaret Craighead, Donna Hough, Margaret Sedon, and Elaine Stanier serving as her court.

At last the Class of 1952 reached the end of this twelve year struggle. Advised by Miss Elsie Bodnar, the seniors were ready for the bustle of name cards, pictures, and rings, a tour to the Bank of Elizabeth, the Christmas Dance, and the Senior Play.

The most important events were left for last, the Senior Banquet, Baccalaureate, and Graduation.

Yes, the Class of 1952 has achieved their goal and now leaves ALL to the Class of 1953.

Graduation

Listen, dear seniors, listen, we pray,
Four years of high school have now passed away:
Wonderful high school, wonderful days,
Hark, while we sing a song in thy praise;
Sweet are the thoughts of our dear old high;
Sweet are the memories of the seasons gone by;
Voices of school friends heard in the hall,
Friendships of classmates we'll ever recall.
Cheers for the old times, nothing regret,
Wonderful school days we'll never forget,
Wonderful school days we'll never forget.

Queen

Here Roseann Kettering, Senior Prom Queen, crowns the Junior Queen, Delores Sutter.
This event is one of the highlights of our high school social season.

JUNIORS

Junior Class Officers

SPONSOR-Mrs. Alice Keeler, SECRETARY-Dorothy Jean Morris,
PRESIDENT-Earl Tanner, TREASURER-Angie Di Liberatore,
VICE PRESIDENT-Delores Sutter

Having led you along the pathway of the Seniors, I would now like to present the runners-up, the Juniors. I, Betsy, was on hand when this uneducated group of anxious scholars entered Elizabeth High School. Let me show you what they have accomplished.

First, Mrs. Alice Keeler was chosen as advisor, and in December a party was held for the Freshmen. Another occasion, occurring in the spring of the year, was their first dance, "The Irish Jig."

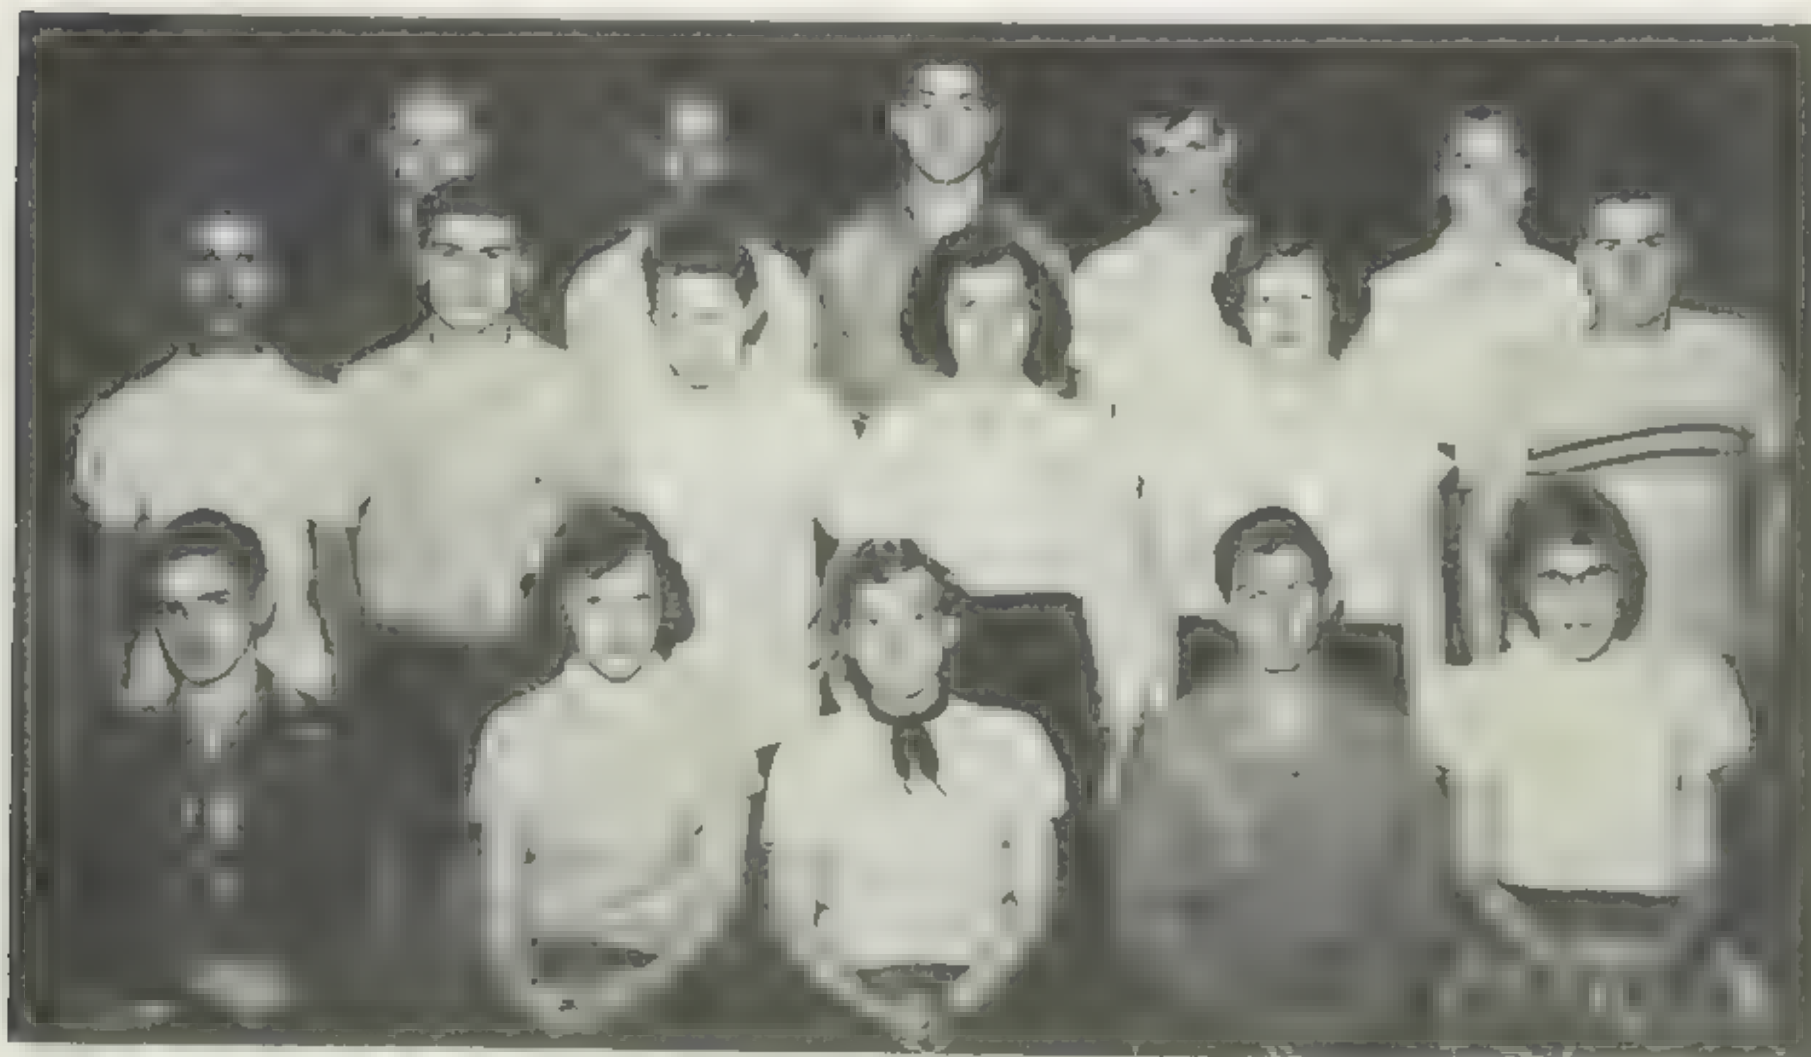

At the beginning of the second year, the students were promoted to the rank of Sophomore. Dances under their sponsorship were "Pirates' Paradise" and the "Promenade." These students found subjects much harder with the addition of biology and plane geometry; but they survived, and the second year came to a close.

During the present year, a very successful event was the production of the "Turkey Trot", the annual class dance. The most outstanding event of the year was the Junior-Senior prom; "Stairway to the Stars." Highlighting the evening was the crowning of the new queen and her court.

SOPHOMORES

TREASURER- Donald Williamson, PRESIDENT- Thomas Cain, SPONSOR- Miss Mary Rubino, SECRETARY- Janice Gahager, VICE PRESIDENT- Albert Biddle.

Now I present those singular symbols of suppressed superiority, the Sophomores!

Armed with birth certificates to prove they were born, the class of '54' entered as Freshmen at E.H.S. with Miss Rubino as sponsor. Starting their Freshman year with a 'bang' was the Freshie Get-together. Then the hot dog sales at the basketball games, their rumble-tumble Skating Party, the Bake Sale with the messy fudge, their Round and Square Dance, and, finally, their greatest achievement of the year their Freshman Dance. With their amusing and talented entertainment and 'School Daze' for their theme, their dance was a great success. But, do you realize the relief of ascending from the lowly status of Freshman to the proud position of Sophomores?

As Sophomores, they left their marks, footprints and dirty finger-marks, in many fields. As usual the scholastic challenges they were expected to encounter, were met with determination and eagerness. Their activities were fewer in number this year, but just as successful. Included among these were their salt water taffy sale, another Bake Sale, the Sophomore Dance in February, and last but not least, the Promenade.

By this time the class had been exhausted of ideas but have finished their first two years with a mark of accomplishment.

FRESHMEN

Freshmen Class Officers

VICE PRESIDENT- Ode Morris, SPONSOR- Mrs. Jane Jenkins, SECRETARY- Kay Opfer, PRESIDENT- Norman Barr, TREASURER- Donna Joll.

Now let's take a look at the Freshman Class, the smallest in stature but certainly not in number as they have one hundred and forty students.

The first joint problem of the class and its sponsor, Mrs. Jane Jenkins, was the selection of the officers pictured here.

The second undertaking was a Freshman Get Acquainted Party, whose object was just what the name implies, to get the Freshmen acquainted with each other.

Shortly after, a bake sale was conducted to raise money for their prom which will be held when they are Juniors.

Then came the biggest event of the year, their first dance, in March. Its success, I know, was due to the co-operation of all Freshmen.

Here is the junior high; made up of seventh and eighth graders who are the future students of the high school. Once a week they have regularly scheduled meetings in their home rooms, with their own elected officers taking charge. They change rooms for classes and twice a week come to the high school for special work.

As the seventh graders look forward to becoming eighth graders, so the eighth graders look forward to becoming a part of the high school.

These serious looking people are members of the Student Council, which is one of the newest school organizations. It governs the actions of the student body and carries the great responsibility of arranging the noon activities and student assemblies.

The various homerooms are represented in the Student Council by their vice-presidents, who are the contact people between the council and the students.

Since its beginning three years ago, Student Council has been under the supervision of Mr. J. Gordon Nevin.

Girl's Athletics

In the G.A.A. we have a club that is set up to give the female set of E. H. S. a better understanding of sports and sportsmanship, and to develop physical abilities.

Any girl can join the G. A. A. as long as she can maintain a "C" average and can pass the initiation successfully. This is the test of all tests!

This year's activities included weekly Wednesday meetings, where the girls played mush ball, volley ball, soccer, and basketball; the noon basketball games; and the annual G.A.A. Dance. The theme for this dance was "Indian Summer" and Bud Murphy's orchestra provided the musical entertainment for the evening. All these activities were carried on under the sponsorship of Miss Pauline Holmes, who is also the girls gym and health teacher.

"Bon jour. Parlez vous Francais?"

I'm sorry, but that is the extent of my French vocabulary, so I'll just have to tell about this Language Club in plain everyday English. I feel pretty close to this club and to its sponsor, Mrs. Edith Gibbs, because, you see, this is the first year here for all three of us. This club is open to Latin or French students who have at least a "C" average. They study the culture of the Romans and the French through such activities as the Roman banquet and the French play. The Christmas Assembly which featured "Christmas in Other Lands" was produced by this group.

As we prepare to continue our journey, "Adieu" and "Vale" to our French and Latin friends.

Tri-Hi-Y

Under the leadership of Miss Marjorie Scott the Tri-Hi-Y has become one of the most active clubs of the school. Forty five girls make up this club, and every year fifteen Freshmen are selected to take the place of the retiring seniors.

These girls work together to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school and community, high standards of Christian character. They can be seen ushering, conducting devotions, and doing other jobs around the school and community.

The annual social events consist of the Christmas party, the mother and daughter tea, the all-school dance and senior banquet. The tour in May brings to a close the Tri-Hi-Y whirl.

The Hi-Y consists of fifteen boys from each of the classes, who are voted in at the end of their Freshman year, and are permanent members for the next three years.

Besides hall patrol and other services that they perform for the school, the Hi-Y also finds time for fun. Led by Mr. Joseph Furno the boys also join in community affairs such as the Halloween Parade.

At times the Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y have joint affairs such as the annual picnic and school dance.

These aspiring young dramatic artists may not have their names in lights on Broadway, but they compose our own Senior Thespians.

The purpose of this organization, sponsored by Miss Elsie Bodnar, is to develop a spirit of active and intelligent interest in dramatics.

The Thespians take care of practically all of the dramatic productions of the school year. The most outstanding, however is the annual Senior play, which requires hours of hard work and many headaches on the part of the members and the sponsor. But the applause of a delighted audience serves as an aspirin for those headaches, as another senior play takes its place among other happy senior memories.

Few know, or at least recognize the amount of work the stage crew does; so that's what I'll try to convey to you. Most important of its jobs are the operating of curtains, lights, sound effects, and props for all school plays. Records played at noon are also taken care of by the crew. In addition at dances and outside activities, along with assemblies, they have full responsibility for the stage.

In consideration of all these jobs I think you'll join me in saying to the stage crew, as the curtains close on their work, "Hats-off!"

These bright-eyed, intelligent-looking people are the hard-working students who produce our "eyes and ears of the school"--our own student publication- The Elizabeth Warrior.

There has been great progress during the development of the newspaper from its beginning in 1948, as a mimeographed booklet to its present form as a regularly printed paper which is distributed monthly to eager subscribers.

SENIOR NEWS

"Something new has been added" is what Elizabeth High students will be saying next May when they receive the long-sought-for and finally won year books.

Heading the staff are Joy Wilkop, editor; and Marilyn Smith, assistant editor with Miss Elsie Bodnar, Miss Marjorie Scott and Bernard McNish acting as faculty advisors.

Pictures of classes, clubs, and other organizations to be included in the book were taken on November 7 and 14.

After much debating "Eli-Mon" was the name chosen by the staff, and the colors will be blue and white.

As everyone knows, never before in the history of Elizabeth High School has a year book been produced. While leafing through the "Yough-a-Mon" from McKeesport, or the "Clairtoman" from Clairton, we have often yearned for the day when we could see Elizabeth High's own student publication. Well, the day is here, and we should recognize it by subscribing. Since the book is two months late in progression, it will take the co-operation of everyone for it to be a success. Seniors will have individual pictures in the book, while under-class-men will be classified in special groups.

It is the hope of all the seniors that this will be just the beginning and that all senior classes following will make the "Eli-Mon" a part of their class project.

ORCHIDS & ONIONS

ORCHIDS to students who cheered our Warriors in the snow and cold.

ONIONS to those who came to the games and showed poor sportsmanship toward the referees and the opposite team. (Although there have been only a few.)

ORCHIDS to Miss Bodnar, Miss Scott and Mr. McNish for acting as advisors for the yearbook.

ONIONS to the students who write on the walls and show no respect for their school or classmates.

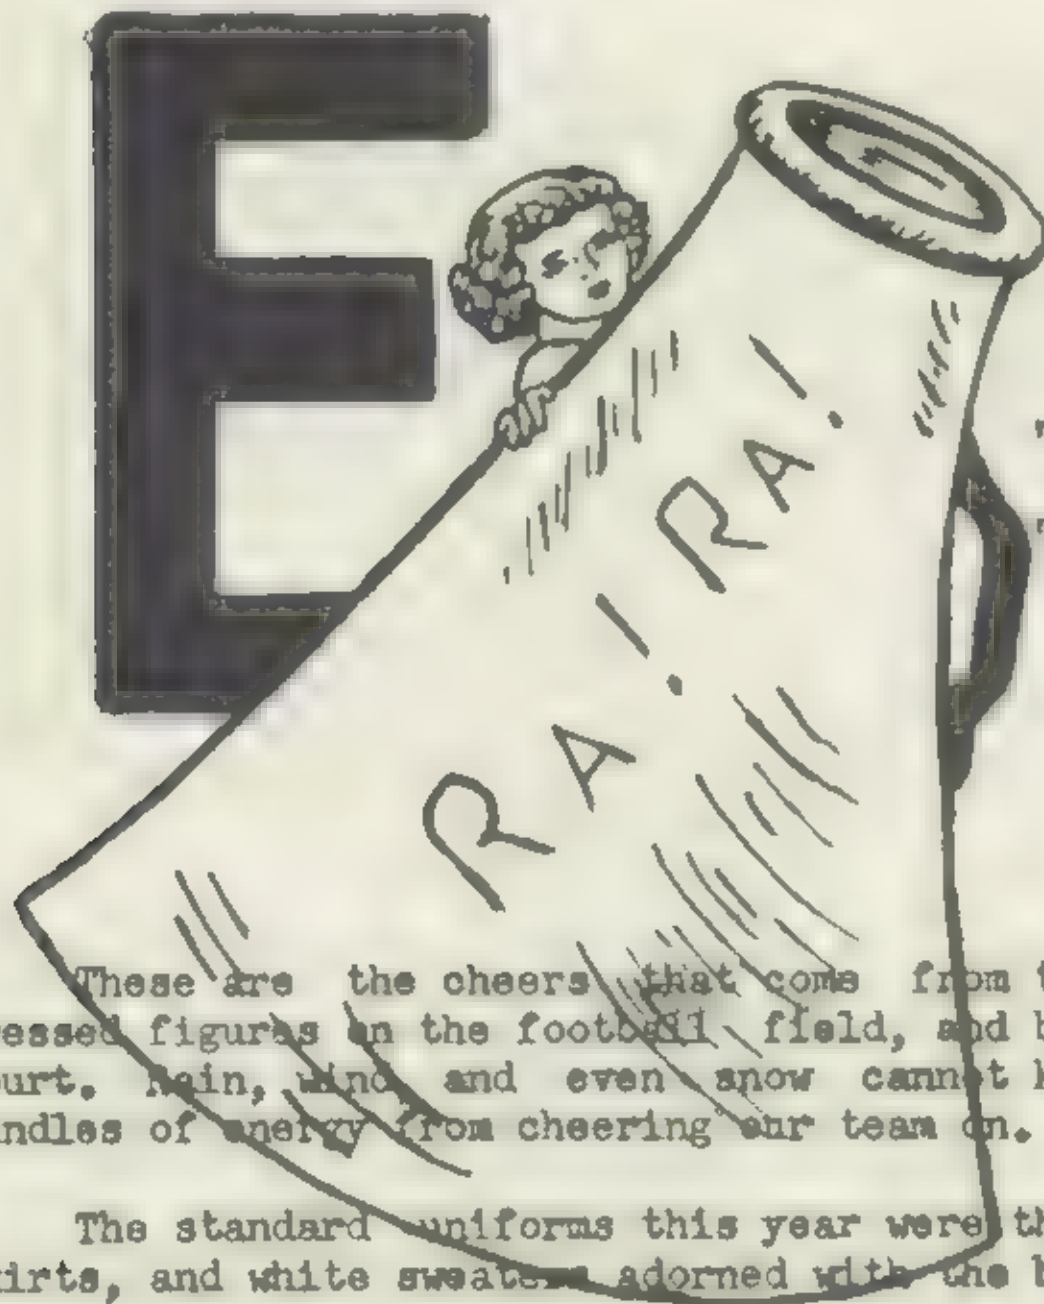

ORCHIDS to the Student Council for the fine assembly that was presented to us on November 2.

ONIONS to the students who always depend on someone else for their homework.

Cheerleaders

These are the cheers that come from the gayly dressed figures on the football field, and basketball court. Rain, wind, and even snow cannot keep these bundles of energy from cheering our team on.

The standard uniforms this year were the white skirts, and white sweaters adorned with the big red E.

Now I would like to reverse things a bit and give a big cheer from Betsy for these girls.

Pictures---deadlines; write-ups---deadlines; reviews---deadlines; make-up---deadlines; typing---deadlines; and at last distribution, that has been the life of this hardworking group.

This all began with a spark of ingenuity of a few seniors, who felt our school needed a yearbook. After hearing the pros and cons, obtaining the approval of the Student Council, selecting sponsors who were Elsie E. Bodnar, Marjorie B. Scott, and Bernard McNish, the Eli-Mon staff was chosen.

Then the real work began; the business staff worked on the funds, and the literary staff on the actual book.

Now their work is completed and the first Eli-Mon Staff relaxes as you follow me through these pages.

Here are the boys who with their coach, Mr. Regis Mazanet, hold late summer practices in order to open our sport schedule as soon as school starts.

Although the Warrior's record of wins for '51 is not too impressive, the students are proud of their fighting spirit, and they know that the lessons learned on the gridiron this year will be of great benefit when the Warriors again take the field in '52. The four senior boys who leave the team will be watching for bigger and better things from the '52 Warriors.

These are our Warriors of the Court who take up when the gridiron warriors complete their schedule. These fellows, coached by Mr. Paul Fleischauer, played many hours of hard, fast basketball, and gave up many more hours in practicing for the games. They deserve credit for work well done and our best hopes for '52 successes.

From gridiron to court to diamond we go. This time we meet the boys who, under Mr. Dean Reed's coaching, bring new glories to Betsy High with every new spring baseball season. They point with pride to Jackie Brown their '51 no-hit, no-run star, and look ahead with hopes of adding other stars to our own Baseball Hall of Fame.

Farewell

My wasn't that an interesting and enjoyable trip through those pages packed with memories and excitement?

I think we owe a big vote of thanks to the advisors and staff who have helped to make our journey possible.

As even good things must come to an end, so must this, our first trip thru Eli-Mon. Any time you want to come along again you'll find me waiting at the front of the book to guide you.

Be seeing you,

Betsy Hi
